

The Red Cap

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sam had a red cap. He left it on a bench at the bus stop. The cap slid off and fell in the mud. Sam did not spot it. He got on his hands and did check the grass. At last he did spot the red cap. Sam did grab it and rub the mud off. He set the cap back on. Sam was glad he had his cap.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Jen and the Bun

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Jen went to the pond with a bun in a sack. A big dog ran up and did grab the bun. Jen did chase the dog, but the dog was fast. The dog did drop the bun in the mud. Jen did pick it up and toss it in the trash. She did pat the dog, and the dog sat still. Jen was not mad. She and the dog went on up the path.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

The Lost Bolt

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Mike went on a bike ride to the lake. He hit a big rock on the path, and the bike did stop. A bolt fell off in the grass. Mike did hunt and hunt. At last he did spot the bolt. He did twist it back on. Then Mike did ride the rest of the path to the lake. He was glad the bike did not stop.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Kate did bake a cake at home. She set the hot cake on a shelf. The cat did jump up and hit it. The cake fell on the rug with a splat. Kate did grab a mop and did scrub the rug. Then she did mix a fresh cake. She set this cake in a tin with a lid. The cat did not get the cake. Kate was glad.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Tim and the Frog

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Tim had a pet frog in a tank on his desk. The lid was off. The frog slid past the rim and hid. Tim did check the desk. He did check the bed. He did check the rug. At last he did spot the frog on the lamp. Tim did cup it in his hands and set it back in the tank. He did snap the lid on. The frog sat on a rock.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Deb ran to the bus stop, but the bus had left. She did sit on the bench and sulk. She did kick a stone. Then a black truck did stop. It was Dad. Dad did wave, and Deb got in. Dad did drive her to class. Deb was glad she was not late. She did thank Dad and ran in to class.

SettingCharacter*Beginning (State Problem)*Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Nick had to get to a game, but a sock was lost. He did check the bed. He did check the rug. He did check the bin. At last he did spot the sock in the tub. It was wet. Nick did tug it on and did run to the game. He was not late. Nick did grin and hop on the grass.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

A Bug in the Tent

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Jake slept in a tent at camp. A bug bit his neck. He did slap at it. The bug hid in his pack. Jake did dump the pack on the mat. The bug fell off a sock. Jake did flick it off the mat and zip the flap. Then he slept. The bug did not get back in the tent. Jake was glad.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Hope and the Fox

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Hope had a bone for the dog. She set it on a plate and went to get the dog. A fox slid in and stole the bone. Hope did chase the fox to the gate. The fox did drop the bone in a hole. Hope did dig it up and rub the mud off. She did hand the bone to the dog. The dog was glad, and Hope did grin.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Cole went up a hill with a kite. A gust hit, and the kite got stuck in a shrub. Cole did tug the line, but the line did snap. He did sit and mend the line with a bit of tape. Then he did send the kite up. The kite rose in the sun. Cole did grin and run with it as it swept past.

SettingCharacter*Beginning (State Problem)*Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Max left a red top in the shed. A gust bent the flap, and mud got in. The top sank in a wet box. Max did not spot it. He did check the shelf. He did check the bin. At last he did drag the box to the mat. He did rub the top. Then it was not wet. Max did spin the top on the step. Max was glad he had the top.

SettingCharacter*Beginning (State Problem)*Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

The Gull and the Chips

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Liz had a sack of chips at lunch. She set the sack on a bench and went to get a drink. A gull swept in and stole the chips. Liz did chase the gull, but it fled to a pole. The sack split, and the chips fell in the sand. Liz did pick them up and toss them in the trash. Then she and a pal did split a bun. Liz was not mad.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Ben had a skit to tell at class, but he lost the list. He did blush and stand still. A pal did hiss the next bit to him. Then Ben did tell the rest of the skit. The class did clap. Ben did grin at his pal. He was glad a pal did help him. Ben did a fine job.

SettingCharacter*Beginning (State Problem)*Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Pete and Jade went to the lake. They had a plan to swim. Pete did jump off a rock and got a cramp in his leg. He did yell and flap his hands. Jade did hold a long stick to him. Pete did grip the stick. Jade did tug him in to the sand. Pete sat and did rest. He did thank Jade for the help. He was glad she was at the lake.

SettingCharacter*Beginning (State Problem)*Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Shane set up a tent on the grass. At dusk a gust hit, and the flap slid off. The tent did tilt. Shane did grab the flap and clip it back on. He did check the pegs and tap them in. Then he got in the tent. The flap held. Shane slept, and the tent did not rip. He was glad he did check the pegs.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

The Lost Chick

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Mom had a chick that was lost in the shed. Seth did hunt for it. He did check the pen. He did check the bin. He did check a pile of sticks. The chick was in a tub. Seth did lift it up and set it back with the hen. The chick did peck at a snack. Seth did grin. He was glad the chick was back with the hen.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

The Note in the Crack

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

Eve left a note on the desk for Dad. The note slid off and fell in a crack. Dad did not spot it. Eve did check the shelf. She did check the trash. At last she did spot a bit of the note in the crack. She did tug it up and hand it to Dad. The note said she had fed the dog. Dad did smile and thank Eve. Eve was glad.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Tam and the Cap

Grade 1

Name: _____ Date: _____

A gust swept the cap off Tam. The cap fled to the top of a bush. Tam did jump, but she did not grab it. She did get a stick and tap the cap. The cap fell in the grass. Tam did pick it up and clip it on. The next gust did not lift the cap. Tam did grin and run on the path.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Rod did tip a glass of milk. The milk ran on the desk and did drip on the rug. Rod did gasp. He did get a mop and a rag. He did scrub the desk, and he did scrub the rug. The milk was off the desk and off the rug. Mom did thank Rod for the help. Rod was glad he did scrub the mess.

SettingCharacter*Beginning (State Problem)*Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)

Blocks in the Sand

Grade 1

Name: _____

Date: _____

Luke and Dale did dig in the sand. They did pack a pan with sand and tip it. A block of sand sat up. They did make five blocks in a line. A wave hit, but it did not smash the blocks. Luke did slap the next wave back with a stick. Dale did grin. They did grin at the blocks as the sun set.

Setting

Character

Beginning (State Problem)

Middle (Three Events)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ending (Solution)